Department of Psychology
Tenure-Track Faculty Position in Child Clinical Psychology

The University of Windsor invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in the Department of Psychology in the area of Child Clinical Psychology. The position is at the rank of Assistant Professor commencing July 1, 2015 or September 1, 2015. This position is subject to final budgetary approval.

In addition to serving a large undergraduate population, the Psychology Department offers doctoral degrees in Clinical Psychology and in Applied Social Psychology. Our CPA- and APA-accredited Clinical Psychology Program offers specialized training in three areas: Adult Clinical, Child Clinical, and Clinical Neuropsychology. For further details, visit our website at www.uwindsor.ca/psychology.

Essential Criteria: The successful candidate will have:
- a PhD completed by the date of appointment;
- a demonstrated track record of research publications;
- a demonstrated capacity for developing a research program in child/adolescent clinical psychology;
- a track record of teaching undergraduate courses;
- the ability to teach graduate courses in child and adolescent assessment and/or intervention;
- interest and ability to supervise graduate student research as well as clinical practice;
- a willingness to contribute to the administrative activities of the Clinical Program, Department, and University;
- eligible candidates will be registered as a Psychologist in the Province of Ontario or will be expected to begin the registration process within the first year of hire.

Preferred Criteria: Preference will be given to candidates who:
- received a PhD in clinical psychology from a CPA- or APA-accredited program with pre-doctoral or post-doctoral specialty training in child/adolescent clinical psychology;
- possess a strong commitment to the scientist/practitioner model.

Applications will include:
- a letter of application, including a statement of citizenship/immigration status;
- a current and detailed curriculum vitae;
- a statement outlining research interests and potential for scholarly achievement;
- a teaching dossier or evidence of teaching effectiveness that might include sample course outlines or teaching evaluations;
- a statement of teaching philosophy and interests;
- samples of scholarly work;
- graduate transcripts, and
- three current letters of reference forwarded directly by the referees to the Chair.

The short-listed candidates may be invited to provide further information in support of their applications. To ensure full consideration, complete an online application (http://www.uwindsor.ca/facultypositions) by the deadline date of Thursday, January 15, 2015. Refer to the job advertisement located at: http://www.uwindsor.ca/facultypositions for a listing of two additional 24-month, limited-term positions (Clinical Psychology and Research Methodology (Quantitative and Qualitative) and Measurement). Applications may be considered after the deadline date however acceptance of a late submission is at the discretion of the appointment committee.
