Senior Psychology Advisor (Psychologist)

Are you a registered psychologist who can provide expertise in assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of chronic pain and psychological reactions to workplace injury and trauma? We’re looking for qualified psychologists to join our team on a full- or part-time basis. You’ll work as part of an interdisciplinary case-management team, focusing on the safe, timely, and durable return-to-work of injured workers.

What you’ll do
As a senior psychology advisor you will:
- Engage in collaborative, proactive, individual case consultations
- Along with other health care providers, plan and monitor assessment and treatment services
- Assess injured workers to provide diagnostic, causality options, and treatment and rehabilitation recommendations
- Offer educational presentations to staff to promote an understanding of psychology and the concepts and practices of case management

Is this a good fit for you?
We’re looking for someone who can:
- Problem-solve in a multidisciplinary, case-management setting
- Provide expertise in assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of chronic pain and psychological reactions to workplace injury and trauma

Your background and experience:
- A doctorate in clinical psychology, neuropsychology, or counseling psychology
- Professional registration as a registered psychologist with the College of Psychologists of British Columbia
- Recent, relevant work experience
- Training or experience in conducting psychological assessments in a medical-legal context
- Familiarity with Windows and Microsoft Office

Who are we?
At WorkSafeBC, we’re dedicated to promoting safe and healthy workplaces across British Columbia. We partner with workers and employers to save lives and prevent injury, disease, and disability. When work-related injuries or diseases occur, we provide compensation, and support injured workers in their recovery, rehabilitation, and safe return to work. We also work diligently to sustain our workers compensation system for today and future generations. We’re honoured to serve the almost 2.3 million workers and 210,000 employers in our province.

What’s it like to work at WorkSafeBC?
It’s challenging, stimulating, and hugely rewarding. Our positions offer tremendous diversity and excellent opportunities for professional growth. Every day, the work we do impacts people and changes lives. What we do is important and so are the people we do it for.

Our benefits
Being part of WorkSafeBC means being part of a strong, committed team. Along with a competitive salary, your total compensation package may include vacation, optional leave arrangements, health care and dental benefits, and contributions toward your retirement pension. As a member of our team, you'll have access to services and benefits that can help you get the most out of work — and life, including the following professional development support:

- In-house education, mentoring, and consultation
- Access to the WorkSafeBC library and professional journals
- Professional continuing education
- Two annual professional memberships

Learn more about what we offer.

To apply

Visit www.worksafebc.com and select Careers to submit a resume and cover letter that details your characteristics, accomplishments, and prior work experience related to the requirements for the position. We can only accept applications submitted through our website.

Application deadline: October 27, 2016

Thank you, in advance, for applying. Unfortunately, we’re only able to contact those whose applications we will be pursuing further.