

Clinical Child Psychologist - Vancouver Island

Campbell & Fairweather Psychology Group - Nanaimo, BC

Campbell & Fairweather Psychology Group is a private psychology practice dedicated to providing the highest quality clinical services to the Nanaimo and surrounding Island community. As one of the largest psychological health care providers on Vancouver Island, Campbell & Fairweather is a broad range full-service facility that aims to respond to client needs in a timely and exemplary manner. Since opening in 2006, our practice has been anchored by the belief that a collaborative approach, emphasizing positive relationships and communication within our team, as well as with other community professionals, allows for better continuity of care for clients, as well as positive and sustainable outcomes. In keeping with our ongoing desire to keep our “work family” cohesive and energized, we additionally emphasize staff wellness and development.

We are centered in beautiful Nanaimo BC; a growing, ocean-side community of close to 90,000 people, boasting a mild climate with many opportunities for year-round outdoor activities, beautiful scenery and affordable real estate. Our practice is well established in the community and we have a large base of referral agents including physicians, lawyers, Government agencies, insurance companies, and schools.

Current Opening:

We are seeking a Psychologist to join our cohesive team of clinicians and staff. If you are interested in ongoing collaboration and opportunity for professional growth, we believe you would be a welcome addition to our team.

Qualifications:

- A Registered Psychologist OR must be eligible for registration with the College of Psychologists of British Columbia
- Experience and expertise in providing psychotherapy services to children and adolescents for a broad variety of issues (e.g., depression, anxiety, trauma)

Additional Assets:

- Strength in providing a variety of psychological and psychoeducational assessments for children and adolescents

Please submit your cover letter and CV in confidence stating your estimated availability date to the attention of David Payne – email davidp@cfpsych.ca . Only qualified applicants will be contacted.
