

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor in Clinical Psychology

Position # 001996TT-2018-PSY-SPF50-50

The University of Windsor's Department of Psychology invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in the area of Clinical Psychology. We are seeking candidates with specialization in child/adolescent clinical psychology and a willingness to teach graduate courses in child and adolescent assessment and/or intervention commencing July 1, 2018. This position is subject to final budgetary approval.

This position is one of 50 new tenure-track Assistant Professor appointments that the University of Windsor is making over three years as part of a visionary strategic investment in our students and faculty. This cohort of 50 new teachers, scholars, researchers, and creators will demonstrate both disciplinary grasp and interdisciplinary reach, providing extraordinary leadership in research, teaching, and learning for a new generation. For more information on the 50 new appointments, visit us at <http://www.uwindsor.ca/50newprofs>.

In addition to serving a large undergraduate population, the Psychology Department offers doctoral degrees in Clinical Psychology and in Applied Social Psychology. Our CPA- accredited Clinical Psychology Program offers specialized training in three areas: Adult Clinical, Child Clinical, and Clinical Neuropsychology. The department has the largest doctoral program on campus, an energetic culture of scholarship, and operates a state of the art Psychological Services & Research Centre. For further details, visit our website at <http://www.uwindsor.ca/psychology>.

Preference will be given to candidates who have completed a PhD (by date of appointment) in clinical psychology from a CPA- or APA- accredited program with pre-doctoral or post-doctoral specialty training in child/adolescent clinical psychology; registered or are eligible for registration as a Psychologist in the Province of Ontario (if not registered, the successful candidate must begin the registration process within the first year of hire); a strong commitment to the scientist/practitioner model; a demonstrated track record of research; a demonstrated capacity for developing a research program; undergraduate teaching experience; ability or potential to teach undergraduate courses related to the candidate's expertise; the ability to supervise graduate student research and clinical practice; an ability to contribute to the administrative activities of the Clinical Program, Department, and University; and a willingness to engage in proactive involvement with the University of Windsor's Psychological Services and Research Centre (PSRC) to fulfil clinical psychology graduate student supervision and training needs.

Application Requirements

- a letter of application, including a statement of citizenship/immigration status
- a detailed and current curriculum vitae
- a statement outlining research interests and potential for scholarly achievement
- samples of scholarly work
- evidence of teaching effectiveness or potential for teaching excellence, including a statement of teaching philosophy and interests
- graduate transcripts
- three (3) current letters of reference forwarded directly by the referees to the Department Head at the address or email listed below

Only those applicants selected for interview will be contacted. The short-listed candidates may be invited to provide further information in support of their applications. To ensure full consideration, complete an online application (<http://www.uwindsor.ca/facultypositions>) found on the job advertisement, and ensure letters of reference are submitted. Review of applications will begin March 1, 2018 and applications will be reviewed until the position has been filled.
