

LUTHER COLLEGE Clinical Psychology

UNIVERSITY OF REGINA

Luther College invites applications for a tenure-track position in Clinical Psychology at the Assistant Professor level, starting July 1, 2018, or as soon after as possible, subject to budgetary approval. Applicants should have a PhD completed or near completion in clinical psychology from a CPA- or APA-accredited program, and be registered as a Psychologist in Saskatchewan or be able to apply for provisional registration as soon as possible after they are hired. Successful candidates should be able to teach introductory psychology, personality psychology, and abnormal psychology. Ability to teach forensic psychology, and to participate in interdisciplinary programs, are assets. We especially encourage candidates with experience in applied or qualitative research methods to apply. Luther College is committed to excellence in teaching, but successful applicants should also demonstrate research productivity or evidence of future research success, and be willing to supervise honours and graduate students. Responsibilities include teaching (typically, 4.5 courses per academic year), research, and service to the college, university and community.

Luther College is federated with the University of Regina; candidates must identify strongly with the vision and mission of the College, a small, multidisciplinary institution federated with a medium-sized comprehensive public University. On the College see www.luthercollege.edu/university, and on the University of Regina see www.uregina.ca.

The successful candidate will also be a member of the University of Regina's Dept. of Psychology (<https://www.uregina.ca/arts/psychology/index.html>), which has graduate programs in both Clinical and Experimental & Applied Psychology. The program in Clinical Psychology is committed to the scientist-practitioner model and is accredited by the Canadian Psychological Association. The Department relates to a number of health-care, research, and other educational facilities in Regina and throughout Saskatchewan, and has recently developed the new state-of-the-art Sun Life Training Clinic (<https://www.uregina.ca/arts/psychology/training-clinic.html>).

Candidates must express a clear interest in the smaller context of a community-involved College, where spiritual and humanistic concerns and diversity are highly valued. Applications should include a cover letter; a curriculum vitae, outlining disciplinary interests and professional qualifications; a teaching dossier demonstrating ability in undergraduate teaching; a research dossier with evidence of an active or potential research program; photocopies of transcripts; and the names and contact information of three referees. A statement explaining the candidate's specific interest in teaching at Luther College at the University of Regina should be included. The deadline for applications is March 31st, 2018. Applications should be sent to:

Dr. Franz Volker Greifenhagen, Academic Dean
Luther College, University of Regina, 3737 Wascana Parkway
Regina, SK S4S 0A2
dean@luthercollege.edu

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Luther College is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from all qualified candidates including women, indigenous people, visible minorities, and people with disabilities.