Senior Mental Health Consultant

Join a team of professionals dedicated to improving the mental health and wellness of children, youth and families in BC

Salary $73,768.80 - $84,361.58 annually

The Child and Youth Mental Health (CYMH) Program of the Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD) provides specialized community-based mental health services to infants, children, youth and their families in BC. This includes services that provide mental health treatment/support, reduce risk, build family and community capacity and resiliency, and focus upon improved performance consistent with evidence-informed practices.

The Senior Provincial Mental Health Consultant provides leadership in policy analysis, development, implementation, and interpretation; strategic planning; program planning and issues management; planning training; preparation of briefing notes, background materials, reports, and correspondence on a variety of issues. Our CYMH Policy Branch is situated in a brand new, leading edge building (Capital Park) in beautiful James Bay. Our team has an excellent reputation for leading high quality policy projects in a positive and supportive team environment.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Master's degree in Social Work (Clinical), Counselling, Educational Psychology, Child and Youth Care or comparable graduate degree at a Master's level.
- Minimum 8 years' experience working in the field of child and youth mental health.
- Minimum 3 years' experience in clinical supervision and management of a mental health program and staff.
- Experience leading policy development, analysis and/or implementation.
- Experience in program planning, implementation and evaluation components.
- Experience working directly with children and youth with complex mental health needs.
